

COCAINE/CRACK QUIZ

What do you know about cocaine and its smokeable form, crack? Answer the following questions True or False.

1. Cocaine and crack are stimulant drugs. T F
2. Over time, cocaine and crack use can lead to mental disturbances, anxiety, and paranoia. T F
3. Cocaine produces an intense high that lasts for several hours. A crack high is somewhat shorter. T F
4. Cocaine and crack take the user on an emotional roller coaster ride. The high is quickly followed by a low feeling called a crash. T F
5. Over time, cocaine and crack use have long-term, cumulative effects that can lead to heart attacks and strokes. T F
6. Long-term use of cocaine and/or crack leads to tolerance, which makes it harder to get high. T F
7. It is possible to become addicted to crack after just one use. T F
8. For people who become addicted to cocaine, cutting back to occasional use is the first step towards recovery. T F
9. To recovery from cocaine and crack addiction, professional treatment is needed. T F
10. It is possible to determine who will become addicted to cocaine and crack and who won't, based on personality profiles. T F